

Get ready to act!

Disaster Preparedness Drill for Foreign Residents

Have Fun Learning and Preparing for Earthquakes and Fires

•Free of charge

- There will be volunteer interpreters
- Participants will receive presents

The official character of Tokyo Bousai
"Bosai the Rhino"

Have a wide range of experiences in both English and plain (simplified) Japanese.

Experience how terrifying disasters can be!

VR disaster simulator

Experience earthquakes and fires in simulators

Earthquake simulator

See what it feels like when your house shakes in an earthquake

Heavy rain simulator

Experience truly heavy rains

Prepare for disasters!

Fire extinguisher training

Try your hand at putting out a fire

Smoke experience

See what it's like to walk through smoke

Evacuation center experience

Experience life in an evacuation center

Learn together!

Crafting workshops

Make crafts that can help in the event of an earthquake or a fire

Communication using a translation app

Practice using a device to translate into and from other languages

There will be many other training opportunities as well

January 28, 2020
(Tuesday)

10:00 a.m. to 12:40 p.m. (planned)
(Registration will begin at 9:20 a.m.)

Musashino Forest
Sport Plaza

(290-11 Nishimachi, Cho-fu City, Tokyo)

■Five-minute walk from the Keio Line Tobitakyu Station

Soup kitchen

Warm food will be served

Musashino Forest
Sport Plaza

■Eligible Participants

■Application/Inquiries

■Application Deadline

300 (International residents, employees and students in Tokyo)

Office of the Disaster Preparedness Drill for Foreign Residents (Ad Interface Co., Ltd.)

[Website] <https://www.bousaikunren.com>

[Email address] 2019info@bousaikunren.com

[Telephone] 03-5811-1929 (9:00~18:00)

January 15, 2020 (Wednesday) *The drill may receive media coverage.

